Black Uhuru Featured in ‘Loving the Silent Tears’

Star-studded benefit show with a meaningful message

Grammy-winning Jamaican reggae legends Black Uhuru were among the stars in “Loving the Silent Tears,” the new musical about finding one’s peace that was held for one sold-out night on October 27 at the Shrine Auditorium in Los Angeles. The show was directed by Tony-nominated Vincent Paterson (acclaimed director/choreographer of Michael Jackson’s “Bad” and Madonna’s “Blond Ambition” world tours) and choreographed by Emmy-winning Bonnie Story (“High School Musical” 1, 2, 3).

Also starring were 2-time Grammy winner Jon Secada, and Broadway stars: Tony winners Debbie Gravitte and Kiril Kulish, Tony nominee Patti Cohenour, and Emmy winner and Tony nominee Liz Callaway.

Also adding their unique voices were top international talents: Arab singer Camellia Abou-Odah, French singer Flo Ankah, actor Junior Case, award-winning actor Luke Eberl, Vietnamese pop star Hồ Quỳnh Hương, Italian tenor Mark Janicello, Korean pop star Brian Joo, award-winning Israeli singer Liel Kolet, Irish soprano Katie McMahon, Korean singer Heather Park, award-winning Brazilian singer Fabiana Passoni, Persian superstar Siavash Shams, and Chinese platinum pop star Kay Tse.

In a statement, Black Uhuru, whose members are founder Derrick “Duckie” Simpson, Andrew Bees, and Kaye Starh, said, “Our music always brings love and happiness. So we ’ re excited about Supreme Master Ching Hai ’ s lyrics that do the same. This is the first time we represent Jamaica to the world in a musical, so we ’ re honored. And we especially look forward to meeting the Master.”

Award-winning playwrights Cynthia Ferrell and Frank Evans worked on the book for “Loving the Silent Tears,” which told the story of an older, bereaved woman named Joy (played by Patti Cohenour from Broadway’s original “The Phantom of the Opera”) and an ambitious young man named Pete (played by Luke Eberl from “Planet of the Apes”). Both are struggling in ways we all could relate to.

“The musical’s message is faith, compassion, gratitude, finding your way out of despair, and finding your inner peace and joy,” said Jody Watley.

The two characters go on magical train ride through various countries, where they encounter the singers of each distinct culture who express an aspect of their inner journeys. When the train stops in Jamaica, Black Uhuru emerges with members of the acclaimed Lula Washington Dance Theatre to perform “Make a Deal,” with music is by Emmy winner Doug Katsaros. The lyrics are based on “Silent Tears,” a poetry collection that had been written by Supreme Master Ching Hai, world-renowned spiritual teacher, humanitarian, poet and artist.

Two-time Oscar-winning composer Al Kasha was inspired to create “Loving the Silent Tears” musical based on poems by Supreme Master Ching Hai. The poetry was set to music by Mr. Kasha, Mr. Katsaros, and other award-winning Broadway/Hollywood composers: 6-time Grammy winner and 2-time Oscar nominee Jorge Calandrelli (“Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon”), 2-time Grammy winner and Oscar nominee Henry Krieger (“Dreamgirls”), Tony and Emmy winner Don Pippin (“Oliver!”), Grammy winner Nan Schwartz (“Harry Potter”), and Oscar and 2-time Grammy winner David Shire (“Saturday Night Fever”).

The event commemorated the 19th Anniversary of Supreme Master Ching Hai Day to honor her worldwide philanthropic work and peace advocacy. California State Senator Curren Price conveyed commendatory remarks about Supreme Master Ching Hai’s longstanding humanitarian contributions. Supreme Master Ching Hai was unable to attend but gave a warm video greeting, in which she said, “To all involved in this musical event, blessed be your dedication to make this world a more enjoyable place, cheering up the mass and giving thanks to Heaven and Earth in this way.”

In the caring spirit of Supreme Master Ching Hai Day, after the musical the Supreme Master recognized three charity organizations, Animal Defenders International, Broadway Cares / Equity Fights AIDS, and Worldwide Veterinary Service, with generous contributions totaling US$300,000, made on behalf of all the artists involved in the musical.

In addition, the vegan lifestyle was promoted in alignment with the overall message of peace and cultural understanding. The guest speaker, Academy Award-winning actor George Chakiris (“West Side Story”), said during his speech, “Supreme Master Ching Hai’s message is that all beings...have the right to live in peace and dignity on this beautiful planet; and that each person can do his or her part to save lives, better our planet, and be heroes. And my personal way to be a hero and save these important lives is to be a vegetarian.”

In addition, the incredible evening was emceed by an enthusiastic group of vegan or vegetarian celebrities: TV host and former Miss USA Susie Castillo, award-winning actor Corey Feldman (“The Goonies”), actress Kelly Packard (“Baywatch”), and 2-time Emmy-winning actor Kristoff St. John (“The Young and the Restless”).

The event concluded with the full cast singing a finale song, “Take Each Other’s Hand,” with music by Al Kasha and lyrics based on Supreme Master Ching Hai’s poetry. The audience joined in by waving star-shaped light wands. Al Kasha said, “The show breaks down boundaries.”

Ticket holders were also invited to an elaborate pre-show art exhibition of the Master’s creative work. After the event, there was a VIP banquet that was catered with delicious vegan food.
